

Discworld® Monthly

It has been brought to our attention that there is some confusion about the financial status of Discworld Monthly.

Discworld Monthly has always been personally funded by its editor Jason Anthony and it has always been run as a non-profit organization. Any income coming into the site is used to cover the costs of maintaining the website, sorting out competition prizes, covering postage, travel and subsistence costs etc.

Nobody has ever taken a wage from Discworld Monthly and we have never charged any production or product supplier to advertise in the newsletter or on our social media sites.

All income to the newsletter comes from:

1. Book affiliate links – when you purchase a book through our website we earn a small % of the value of the book. When we release news about new books we try to link to both The Discworld Emporium and Discworld dot com as well as our affiliate links. Sometimes this is not possible where they have yet to announce the product being available.
2. Direct contributions – occasionally fans make personal donations to Discworld Monthly via our Paypal account.
3. Direct sales of licensed Discworld Monthly products.

Unfortunately without the above Discworld Monthly would not be able to continue. We simply do not have the funds to support the costs.
